BUSINESS NOTICES.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

COUNTERFEIT ALLCOCK FORGUS PLASTERS.

Dangerous Imitations and Counterfeits of this valuable medicinal article are in the market, whose use is calculated to make worse afflictions, which the True Plaster invariably relieves or cures.

But the case is even worse, for some of these vils persons have added absolutely poisonous qualities, disease, where applied, Blotches, Gangrene, and mortification of the part.

The men who make these imitations should be frowned down by an indignant and outraged people. These men are incapable of making anything of their own; earn a name, therefore, they steal the reputation of celebrated articles in which to clothe their miserable and nefarious concoctions.

The ALLCOCK'S INDIA RUBBER POROUS PLAS-TERS are prepared with intelligent conscientious regard, to meet those great creative properties which have made the plaster celebrated throughout the civilized world.

HOW TO SECURE THE TRUE PLASTER WITHOUT DOUBT.

Observe that on the Plaster is a U. S. Government Stamp printed in black ink, with H. BRAZIER on the same in White Letters, all others are imitations or Counterfeits.

The Chicago Tribune.

Monday Morning, May 25, 1874.

President MacMahon's new Ministry is said by a cautious foreign correspondent to be "formed for business." Most Ministries are. The chances are that the French Government's business will for a time be conducted in the Bonapartist interest.

Hochefort is now journeying overland from San Francisco to New York. He will make a stay of several days in Chicago. Incendies of all kinds,—burn-burners, heretic-burners, and members of the American Labor-Refugee League,— should unite to give the illustrious leader of the Parisian petrouse a fitting reception.

Senators Dorsey and Clayton have been requested by the Arkansas Legislature to resign.
They cannot do better. If the attempted revolution in Arkansas had been successful, they would have had the right to profit by the result; since it has miserably failed, they cannot hope to avoid the penalty of failure. The game played by the Senators from Arkansas was not of the heads-i-win, tails-you-lose order.

This week will probably be a bad one for railroad companies in Wisconsin. Gov. Taylor has finished with his inexcusable proclamations, and has gathered his subordinates well in hand for serious work. He means mischief. Four suicides were begun against agents of the road on Saturday, and these are merely the first of a series which the State officials are preparing to bring.

Good Catholics will find little to comment in the remarks of Senators Edmunds and Sargent in the Civil Rights debate, concerning the attitude of the Church toward the common schools.
Largent alleged that the Church was attempting to break down the common-school system, and Edmunds feebly parried by saying that the Church never discriminated between black and white men in her missionary efforts. The attack and defense in manner and tone were equally in bad taste, unsuited to the Senate-Chamber of the United States, and not pertinent to the subject under consideration.

Two sorcerers have been burned by the Alcides of Jacobo, in the State of Sinaloa, Mexico, and more under surveillance. The evidence upon which the guilty persons were convicted was of the most crushing character. A man said to have been bewitched was treated to three swallows of holy water, whereupon he vomited blankets and bunches of hair in great profusion. This was enough for the Alcades. He roasted the accused without stopping to connect them with the blankets and hair in the stomachs of the bewitched. Mexican theology and logic, after all, are not very much inferior to such as have recently been exhibited in more enlightened lands.

CONGRESS AND CONGRESSIONAL ELEC-TIONS.

The term of the (or Forty-fourth) Congress begins March 4, 1875, but it is not now expected there will be any session of that Congress before the first Monday in December of that year.
Already half-a-dozen new Senators have been elected to take their seats in the Forty-fourth Congress, Gov. Booth, of California, being the earliest, and Mr. Eaton, of Connecticut, the latest so chosen. Gov. Booth was elected in December, 1873, lacking two weeks of two full years before he may expect to enter upon his Senatorial duties. Mr. Eaton must wait at least a year, possibly eighteen months. The Senate, the purely social relations of citizens.
But, as far as it disregards obvious principles of human nature, the bill will of necessity become ineffective, and for this reason no serious objection can be urged against its extreme provisions.

The Chicago produce markets were generally quiet on Saturday, owing to larger supplies, and grain was active. Mop corn was dull, and a shade lower, closing at $17.40@17.45 each, and $17.37@17.40 seller June. Lard was dull, and 50¢ per 100 the lower, closing at $10.70@10.75 each and $10.50@10.50 seller July. Maize was quiet and unchanged, closing at 64@65¢ per bushel, or for short time, 65¢ for short time, and 64@65¢ for sweet-pickled hams.
Lamb weights were quiet and firm, as to far as to Buffalo. Highwines were quiet and unchanged, at 94@95¢ per gallon. Flour was quiet and weak. Wheat was active, and 1½@2 lower, closing at $1.19@1.20 each, $1.20@1.20 seller June, and $1.22 for No. 2 Minnesota. Corn was active, and 1½@2 lower, closing at 59¢@60¢ each and 59¢@60¢ seller June. Oats were active, and 1½@2 lower, closing at 45¢ each and 44½@45¢ seller June. Hay was quiet and steady at $1.01. Barley was active, and nominally firm at $1.06@1.07 each. Hogs were active and firm, selling at $4.00@4.30. Sheep were inactive and nominal.

That Prof. Swing's determination to withdraw from the Presbyterian Church has not lessened its popularity, is attested by the alacrity with which people subscribed for the bonds of the Fourth Church yesterday, with the understanding before them that Prof. Swing is to remain the pastor. The amount of $20,200 was taken up in about fifteen minutes, or about the time necessary to put down the names of the subscribers. The takers included men of various creeds,—such men as Henry Greenbaum, John Wentworth, Perkins Bass, L. Z. Leiter, N.
K. Fairbank, Perry H. Smith, William Vocke, and others equally well known. The subscription of the Merchants' Savings Loan and Trust Company would indicate that the bonds are regarded as a safe financial investment; and thus must largely depend, after all, upon faith in Prof. Swing. The variance of doctrinal belief which is to be found among the subscribers seems also to indicate a feeling that the Fourth Church will hereafter be something of an independent temple where all men may worship. It is said that Prof. Swing will send a formal withdrawal to the Chicago Presbytery to-day.

DRAKE ON CALVIN.

Judge Drake, of the Court of Claims at Washington, is a quasi-universal genius. He is an author, a statesman, a constitution-builder, and theologian, as well as judge, lawyer, and politician. At the beginning of the War he was a hot Secessionist; but, finding that secession was not likely to lead to political or other preferment in Missouri, he became an intense radical and leader of radicals. Radicalism in politics he found paid, and now he is equally radical in Calvinism. At the Saturday session of the Presbyterian General Assembly at St. Louis, his religious earnestness and Calvinistic zeal dropped out, much to the discomfort of the Assembly.
Had an Isaiah suddenly appeared in the midst of them and foretold the near dissolution and utter extinction of the Presbyterian Church, he would scarcely have produced a greater commotion.
The people, in their Congressional elections this year, seem very generally determined to have new men,—men with clean hands, stout hearts, and trustworthy professions. These Congressmen-elect will come to their work—when at length, their work begins—with tolerably well-defined instructions on a good many points of doctrine and duty, that are now falsely esteemed of independent temple where all men may
to-day.

Lamb weights were quiet and firm, as to far as Representatives will be elected in November, 1874. These are the extreme cases. But to localize an illustration in the New England States: Connecticut elects a Senator this spring, and Representatives next spring; while Maine and Vermont elect Representatives in September this year, and Senators in the winter following. The three Pacific States make an even, more pointed illustration, as we have in part explained.

The elections ending with those in November, 1874, will have determined the character of every change to be made in the Senate, and will leave only nine seats to be filled in the House of the new Congress. The new Congress will be, however, still more than a year distant, unless specially convened. More than this, and worse, is the elections ending with those in November,
